Over Child's Disappearance—
Stockholders' Meeting — LiveslySmith Marriage.

Rally day exercises were held in Congregational church Sunday. The attendance was large and the interest lively. At the church Service, Rev. J. Sherman Gove preached a fina sermon. The choir sang with a vignt that put life and inspiration into the whole exercises. The orchestra also did its part finely.

At the Sunday school session the choir and orchestra did excellent work. The attendance was 105. Festures of the session were the address of welcome by Mae Leach; Hail to the Sunday School Flag, Fabian Rüssell. The primary class, Mrs. Gertrude Tracy, teacher, did excellent in both song and exercises. Noteworthy was the Banner class. The primary class, Mrs. Gertrude Tracy, teacher, did excellent in both song and exercises. Noteworthy was the Banner class. This is a class of boys, Miss Elia Davis, teacher, who have won the banner for regular attendance at church and Sunday school, each member with his own Bible. This class took part in the exercises. The superintendent spoke of this class, saying that he was proud to have such a class of boys in the school, as those honors are more often won by the stris. Further, one can predict what kind of men these boys will make if they will but continue in this way; for it is the rule, as the boy so the man.

Rev. J. Sherman Gove also spoke and was given close attention. The breport of the secretary, Joseph Jette, showed 105 present, with an offering of 15.45. The grand rally song by choir, orchestra and school was aung with yolume and harmony.

The idea of Rally day was also carried out in the evening service of the Y. P. S. C. E. Miss Esther. Bergstrom, president, with Miss Eliza Graham its address this service of boldness in making a start in the Christian life, Missing Child Found. Missing Child Found.

Missing Child Found.

The people in the South Village became alarmed last Saturday when it was reported that the 3 year old daughter of M. LaCharite had disappeared and could not be found, it was about 5 o'clock when the child was missed. A searching party was it once formed and every part of the rillage thoroughly searched. About 8 v'clock the child was found in her win house. The child, while at play, and crawled into the clothes basket, lovering herself with clothes and went to sleep and was unaware that she was the cause of so much trouble and worry.

Vote to Open Another Schoolhouse. On account of a larger number of children attending school this year in the village it was voted by the school committee to open another room and to engage another teacher.

Garden Club's Exhibit. Garden Club's Exhibit.

All Staffordville was out last Saturday afternoon, and enough others from all parts of the town to make a crowd of about 500, at the exhibition and fair of the boys and girls garden club. About 35 boys and girls made exhibits of what they had raised during the summer, under the supervision of F. H. Pium and Miss Freeman, a field secretary of the National Playground association, assisted by the local public school teachers, carried out an interesting series of folk dances by the school children. This was thoroughly enjoyed by the crowd.
